I am glad to know that Loyola Alumni Association is publishing its annual magazine this year. It is a matter of pride to pen down a few lines for this wonderful initiative taken by the members of the alumni who is related to this School as beneficiaries, supporters, collaborators and friends. I congratulate the members for having made a significant impact within in a short period of time. It is a matter of pride to state that the members of the alumni is living up to the motto of the school "Daily towards Progress" in the right spirit and inspiring the students currently studying in the school.

I take this occasion to congratulate the members of the Loyola Alumni Association as the Principal of the school and as the Chairman of the Loyola Alumni Association for the outstanding effort of their and all the endeavours they have been doing through this few years. I appreciate their strong sense of commitment, service and responsibility that the members have for the society which they have been demonstrating through various activities. I also take this opportunity to thank them for transforming this institution into an outstanding and significant temple of learning today through their success stories and heights they have achieved in their lives. I wish all the members of the Loyola Alumni Association God's abundant blessing for manifold successes in the years to come and appeal the members to make the Loyola Alumni Association a vibrant and dynamic one.

I am very happy to know that Loyola Alumni Association is planning to publish a souvenir. This Association of Loyola Old Student has been functioning well since a few years. The Management feels very proud of it, as it proves how much the former students are attached to their Alma Mater and want to continue their association with the school.

The Association in the past has conducted fete and inter school basketball tournaments in the school besides their regular 'holi milan' in the school campus, with their families. It gives a special feeling of closeness to meet old buddies and recall the good old days spent together in the school.

This Association must become one of the main roots of the "Loyola Tree", spreading its branches all over Bihar and even in the even in the country. This Alumni Association should serve as a bridge between the "old" generation and the present one for a better future. I hope more are more old students will join and transform this Association into a strong one to spread the good news about Loyola all over. Having branches of this association in different centres – Delhi Bangalore – and inter lining them may be a good idea and later on being connected with such Alumni Associations in the schools managed by the Brothers in different of the country. After clearly defining its mission and vision, it can become a big and strong movement.

I wish you God's blessing on all your efforts.

लॉयला हाई स्कूल, पटना के पूर्ववर्ती छात्र एक स्मारिका प्रकाशित करने जा रहे हैं, यह जानकर प्रसन्नता हुई। विद्यालय की शैशवावस्था में मेरी नियुक्ति यहाँ हुई थी जिस समय प्राचार्य की बुद्धिमत्ता, सहृदयता एवं शिक्षकों की प्रतिबद्धता कर्मठता की अधिक आवश्यकता थी। पूरा विद्यालय एक परिवार की तरह था। शिक्षण एवं शिक्षणोत्तर कार्यक्रम समयबद्ध एवं अबाध गति से चलते थे। सारा परिवेश अनुशासन बद्ध था। वर्ग में छात्रों की उपस्थिति लगभग शत प्रतिशत रहती थी। गृह कार्य के लिए शायद ही दण्ड देना पड़ता था। ऐसे शलीन एवं मेधावी छात्रों का शिक्षक होने का मुझे गौरव प्राप्त हुआ। आज अपने छात्रों को जीवन के विभिन्न क्षेत्रों में उच्चतर अथवा उच्चतम पदों पर आसीन सुनकर या देखकर हृदय हलादित उठता है।

“सर्वत्रजयमिच्छेत् शिष्यात् पुत्रात् पराजितम्।” अर्थात् लोग सब जगह विजय की कामना करते हैं, लेकिन शिष्य एवं पुत्र से हारना ही चाहते हैं। आज मुझे अपनी राह में ही जीत आनन्द आ रहा है। परम पिता परमेश्वर से मेरी पाणिबद्ध प्रार्थना है कि जीवन पथ पर आप अनवरत आगे बढ़ते रहें और अपनी कर्तव्य निष्ठा से समाज का उपयोग अंग बनें।

मुझे तेरह वर्ष से कुछ अधिक काल तक इस विद्यालय में मैं अपने छात्रों को विद्वान एवं बुद्धिमान बनाने से अधिक चरित्रवान बनाने का प्रयास किया। संन्यासी ब्रदरों के मार्गदर्शन में मुझे अध्यापन का जो प्रशिक्षण मिला वह मेरे समस्त अध्यापकीय जीवन का पाथेय बना। मैं उन आदरणीय ब्रदरों के प्रति हार्दिक आभार व्यक्त करता हूँ और लॉयला स्कूल को नमन् करता हूँ। इन्हीं शब्दों के साथ मैं कार्यक्रम की सफलता की शुभकामना करता हूँ।

Dear Friends

Yesterday was theirs.....

today is ours.....

Tomorrow will be yours.....

I feel great pleasure in bringing this school magazine in front of you. I am thankful to you all for the love and trust you have shown towards me.

I get sentimental recalling my Golden days in the school as those were the days I enjoyed in its full, free from all the worldly anxieties and chaos. The name of the school is enough to introduce its students. Although a lot of positive changes have taken place in the school in recent years yet, many more needs to be done such as the construction of alumni office, regular basketball tournaments, student counselling cell, parents teachers relationship council etc.

In the words of Robert Frost the real need of the hour is "Woods are lovely, dark and deep but we have promises to keep and miles to go before we sleep."

Long live Loyola!

with kind regards,

"It's a proud moment for us to have our first Alumni magazine with us. It's an outcome of our ongoing process to nourish this small but very strong community. It's not only a social platform but also a platform where we share & revitalise ourselves with old memories.

We can never forget the contributions of our teachers who always inspired us to become a noble citizen.

I'll like to remember our founder member late Rajat banka, whose efforts to lay the foundation of this forum can never be forgotten.

I appreciate our team members & friends who has given their best to solidify LAA.

I thank Bro satheesh & Bro cyril for their kind cooperation.

Dear Members

This is the first issue of our Magazine and will be judged by the many flattering remarks as to its literary and artistic merits; we may feel fairly well satisfied with it.

While, however literary and artistic excellence is very desirable and necessary, there are other elements required in a publication such as ours in order that it shall fulfil its object completely.

Of these other elements one, and perhaps the most important, is that our Magazine should convey a direct — a human — interest to as many individual members of the staff as possible.

The one-big-family idea is worth encouraging. The spirit of friendliness helps greatly in the accomplishment of correlated work. There is a social touch attached to our relations with each other, and the cultivation of the human touch adds to the happiness and contentment of my loyalites. The Magazine furnishes an outlet for news of this nature.

Through this magazine we have tried to highlight our initiatives which we have undertaken in this year for the children across Patna. This includes inter-school basketball competition..

Our Magazine is a blend of our purpose and aim which is to enable us to disseminate our views, aims and aspirations, not only to the public, but to our fellow members in the service, and to develop the idea, and maintain it in our minds, that this is our Magazine in which—within reasonable limits—we may express ourselves with freedom.

I extend my best wishes to my members and will remain indebted to them for giving me a space in this magazine.

With Regards,

Dear fellow alumni brothers.

Please convey my best wishes to the members of our Loyola Alumni Association for their continued selfless service as you prepare for the beautiful Souvenir of our Association.

The question was once asked of a highly successful businessman, "How have you done so much in your lifetime?"

He replied, "I grow great by dreams. I have tuned my mind loose to imagine what I wanted to do. Then I have gone to bed and thought about my dreams. In the night I dreamt about my dreams. And when I awoke in the morning, I saw the way to make my dreams real. While other people were saying, 'You cant do that, it is impossible,' I was well on my way to achieving what I wanted." As Woodrow Wilson, 28th President of the U.S., said: "We grow great by dreams. All big men are dreamers."

They see things in the soft haze of a spring day, or in the red fire on a long winter's evening. Some of us let these dreams die, but others nourish and protect them; nourish them through bad days until they bring them to the sunshine and light which comes always to those who sincerely hope that their dreams will come true.

Keep up the good work that you always do and wishing you all the success.

Warm regards

Gopal Panday

हर किसी के मन में एक स्कूल हमेशा के लिए बसा होता है। वो अच्छा स्कूल भी हो सकता है और बुरा भी। मैं दसवीं पास हाने के बाद स्कूल कभी नहीं लौटा लेकिन कोई ऐसा दिन नहीं जब मैं स्कूल नहीं गया। किसी न किसी बहाने स्कूल याद आ ही जाता है। समय पर पहुँचने की आदत डॉक्टर नरेश मोहन झा से ऐसी पड़ी कि कहीं भी समय पर पहुँचता हूँ तो अपने स्कूल को जरूर याद करता हूँ। वैसे अपना स्कूल याद तो वर्मा सर के छड़ी-प्रसाद से भी आता है जब अलजेबरा के फॉर्मूले में जरा सी चूक पर हथेलियां गरम हो जाती थीं। उनकी मुस्तैदी बताती रही कि गणित में अच्छा करना है तो अलर्ट रहो। मैं गणित में पारंगत नहीं हो सका। लोयला स्कूल मुझे बहुत सी ऐसी बातें सीखा रहा था जिनकी बुनियाद पर मेरा भविष्य खड़ा होने वाला था। मेरे जीवन में स्कूल का बहुत योगदान है। खासकर अनुशासन के मामले में। मेरे आस-पास काम का अनुशासन अपने आप बन जाता है और जब भी ऐसा होता है मेरा स्कूल मेरे पास खड़ा हो जाता है। उसकी महक आने लगती है। प्रीति सरकार, मिस रोज, शर्मा सर, मिस शोभा, मिस इंदिरा शांडिल्य, पांडे सर, पीटी सर सब याद हैं। पीटी सर से जिमनास्टिक सीखने की बहुत तमन्ना थी लेकिन जैसे ही आगे वाले छल्ले से कूदा, जमीन पर आकर आंखों के सामने अंधेरा छा गया। उसके बाद किसी रूसी जिमनास्ट की तरह बनने का सपना अधूरा ही रह गया।

स्कूल साथ-सुथरा बरामदा और उसमें अपनी परछाई, असंबेली का वो गाना, कर्तव्य मार्ग पर डट जावें। डायरी भी याद है। टाई भी। वो छोटा सा चिड़ियाघर भी याद है। हम जब भी दोस्तों से मिलते हैं लोयला से भी मिलते हैं। अचानक सब कुछ नया हो जाता है। हम किसी क्लासरूम में बैठ जाते हैं। जहां प्रीति सरकार बायोलॉजी पढ़ाने लगती हैं तो कभी शर्मा सर भूगोल। ब्रदर मोंटफोर्ट का हरे रंग की स्याही से दस्तखत करना, ये इसलिए याद है कि उन्हीं के दस्तखत से स्याही वाली कलम की आदत पड़ गई। यह इश्क लंबा चला। लोयला स्कूल हमेशा अच्छा करता रहे, हम तो यही चाहेंगे।

Message

It gives me immense pleasure to note that Loyola Alumni association (LAA) is going to publish its first Souvenir this month. It will certainly go a long way in establishing a new relationship of the LAA with the school, the students and the city of Patna.

Indeed it's a matter of great pride that for last 45 years, Loyola has been doing a commendable work in moulding future generations by providing excellent education with a range of co-curricular activities to thousands of children. Loyalties have not only occupied several positions of importance but are also making positive contributions to the society in various ways all over the country and beyond.

Publication of this Souvenir has given us an occasion to remember and express our gratitude to all our teachers whose dedication, vision and wisdom has made us what we are today. How can any alumni of eighties ever forget the Sh. Naresh Mohan Jha who laid a deep foundation of Hindi, Sanskrit etc and deeper of discipline in us with his unparalleled dedication and devotion? Questions like.....Pita ji kya karte hain?... tum kya banoge? etc were at times followed by aashirwad with both hands which used to leave a visible impression on one's cheeks and eternal impression on mind. Scouting under Bro. Joseph probably initiated my liking for olive/khaki uniform which I proudly wear today. Various activities like Science Club, Photography Club etc under Bro. Fredrick exposed us to different world, triggered our minds and we developed different hobbies. English classes of Ms Tulsi Bhatia, Bio classes of Ms Priti Sarkar etc were just incredible.

Loyola gave me my best friends who attended and bunked (not many, of course) classes with me, won accolades and punishments with me and are still with me through the highs and lows of life. The Alumni Association has further strengthened our bond and has provided a platform to do something more together for ourselves, for Loyola and for Patna. . It has already taken few initiatives and I thank them for the same.

I wish the our Loyola flourishes, the students scale new heights and the Loyola Alumni Association keeps its good work going in the line of our school motto प्रतिदिन उन्नति की ओर"

It gives me immense pleasure to learn that Souvenir is being brought out by 'Loyola Alumni Association'. Alumni of any school constitute permanent & valuable resource.

Over the last more than 30 years, Loyola High School has groomed thousands of students who have achieved unparalleled excellence in their personal & professional lives and have made their presence felt all over the country/world. It has passed through many phases of success as well as of hardship but has always come out with glory & dignity.

Loyola High school gave us ample scope to demonstrate our talents. In fact, this has helped me to decide what to do in my life and I am sure Loyola High School helped all the students, past and present, in the same manner. Loyola High School has a wonderful system wherein a student can walk up to the Principal, Vice-Principal and any member of the staff with any grievance and all grievances are compassionately dealt with due care and promptness. Faculty members always strive to inculcate among students the importance of being humane and develop empathy. This does a lot to one's confidence.

I am heartily thankful to all my seniors, colleagues, juniors, staff members, alumni and all concerned who have initiated to publish the Souvenir. The endeavour and initiative put in by all is highly laudable and commendable.

With best wishes & warm regards.

लोयला एल्यूमनी विगत सात-आठ वर्षों से कार्यरत है। पहली बार इसकी स्मारिका पर कार्य करते हुए मुझे बहुत खुशी हो रही है। इस स्मारिका में हमलोगों ने लोयला एल्यूमनी की गतिविधियों को दर्शाने का प्रयास किया है। एल्यूमनी के रूप में लोयला के सभी पूर्ववर्ती छात्रों को ऐसा मंच मिला है जिसके माध्यम से वे अपने बचपन के दिनों को आज भी जिंदा रखे हुये हैं। इस स्मारिका के निर्माण में विशेष रूप से मैं, बालाजी, संजीव महासेठ सर, चंद्र विजय, शैलेन्द्र एवं अन्यो का काफी सहयोग मिला और समय-समय पर प्रोत्साहित किया। मैं इन सबों के प्रति अपना आभार व्यक्त करता हूँ और उम्मीद करता हूँ कि आपलोगों को यह छोटा सा प्रयास पसन्द आयेगा।

Love

Star wishes, fantasies, and dreams
 Fairy dust, wool gather, moon beams
 Hope and desires coming true
 The day I fell in love with you
 Sharing all your secrets
 Comforting all your fears
 Soothing all that ails you
 Drying away your tears
 I live to light up your evenings
 Hold you close beneath the stars
 Drench myself in your holy waters
 The future is finally ours
 My love for you gets stronger
 the more of you I know
 The sun is shining brighter
 my love for you now grows

बचपन

अक्सर मुझे बचपन बहुत ही याद आता है,
 कभी मुझको हँसाता है, कभी बरबस रुलाता है,
 वो मोहल्ले की गलियाँ, वो घर की छत और सिढ़ियाँ,
 कैसे भूलूँ बचपन के दोस्तों के संग की अटखेलियाँ,
 कभी उनकी रोटी चटनी, कभी वो छिना झपटी,
 अटपट खटपट, दौड़ा दौड़ी, भागा भागी.....

माँ की पड़ती डांट, फिर उनकी प्यार भरी थपकी,
 जीवन के उस काल खंड में, साथ रहे सब साथी,
 अब भी जब मिलते हैं, खूब ठहाके लगते हैं,
 संग बैठ के हम सभी, लिट्टी चोखा खाते हैं।

“SPARE THE ROD TO NURTURE & SAVE THE CHILDHOOD”

Corporal punishment to students in schools hits violation of child right

Corporal punishment like canning, spanking, smacking to students by the teachers or school administration or even by parents or any body is still used in most part of the country some time results into serious consequences. Our law maker has enacted various safeguards to curb and minimize these incidents of students-beating in schools or any physical and mental exploitation of children by any body.

The Juvenile Justice (care and protection of Children) Act stipulates in section 23 that whoever having the actual charge of juvenile (below 18 years) assaults or abandons the juvenile in a manner likely to cause such juvenile unnecessary mental or physical suffering shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or fine, or with both. It is apt to recall here that The Convention on Child Right 1989 also advocates protecting children from all forms of physical or mental violence, injury or abuse and protection of child is also a consideration in the Right to Education Act 2009.

If any punishment to a students or child culminated into hurt or further grievous injuries than provision of Indian Penal Code (IPC) also attracts with punishment even up to life imprisonment. The supreme court of Indian and various high court time to time passed verdicts upon the instances of corporal punishment in schools, as more recently the Delhi high court in leading case filed by a parents forum ordered that we also direct the state to ensure that children are not subjected to corporal punishment in schools and they receive education in an environment of freedom and dignity free from fear..

The issue still alive as we have to come across frequently through media reports as National Human Right Commission has taken cognizance in February 2013 that a 12 year boy was beaten to death by a residential school of east champaran. More recently in January this year itself a FIR was lodged in Nehru Nagar police station of Mumbai complaining against a school teacher for beating a class 3 student with a wooden ruler on her leg in a school at East Kurla . In a reputed school of the state capital of Bihar a student of class 4 was beaten on account of a petty issue not related to academic and incident of beating a kid by the teacher upon his failure to remember table resulting complain to police in Masurahi reported on March 14.

It is in discussions and debate that it is the time to give up “spare the rod and spoil the child” as it is commonly misunderstood and miss-utilized evidenced from frequent incidents across the country, now it’s the time to advocate and fortify the new concept of “spare the rod to nurture and save childhood”

एक भारतीय सिपाही के दिल से...

किसी गजरे की खुशबु को... महकता छोड़ के आया हूँ...
मेरी नन्ही सी चिड़िया को... चहकता छोड़ के आया हूँ...!

मुझे छाती से अपनी... तू लगा लेना ऐ भारत माँ
मैं अपनी माँ की बाहों को... तरसता छोड़ के आया हूँ...!

We hear the above phrase a lot but fail to pay much attention to it as we believe that all our friends are friends in deed. Mostly in troubled times we look back space that is sans them. The choices that we take, the amount of time we spend all decide the amount of closeness we share with a friend.

A true friend no matter what doesn't stop from helping us out of anything. Also we should not stop from helping friends who are very close to us. Friends we make now and then don't seem memorable but when on a day we end up with one of them as our closest friend, then the true value of friendship dawns on us.

A friend who doesn't hesitate to help us out of any turmoil even while risking his own life is one who is a truly best friend of ours. Friends aren't calculated risks but uncalculated gains that we get in life. Friends also can be past enemies. It isn't how much trust we put in a person but how much we haven't hesitated from being befriending him and helping him in troubled waters that decides a good friendship.

Sometimes even a trustworthy person can backstab us. Our actions to decide whether the person whom we consider as a friend truly trusts or for that matter likes us. So though a major role is played by us in selecting our core group, the saying always holds true-a friend in need is a friend indeed.

Loyola alumni meet: It was a nostalgic moment for all the 70 alumni who, along with their family members, assembled at the auditorium of the Loyola High School to participate in the second Alumni Association meet of the school. The auditorium reverberated with the voices and memories of the old students. "In fact, the meet was planned to be organized on the Friendship Day, which gave it a special meaning," said chairman, Public and Media Relation Committee, Loyola Alumni Association, Deepak Kumar. The chief guest on the occasion was school principal Brother Felix and he was indeed happy to share the vivid memories of the former students. A cultural programme was organized in which a comedy play 'Aandhon Ka Haathi', was staged by one of the old students, Abhishek, and his group. TNN

Former students of Loyola reunite in alumni meet

Old pals go down memory lane

OUR CORRESPONDENT

Patna, Aug. 1: On Sunday, a lot many ex-Loyola students relived their good-old days in the school premises. For many, it was simply Parvati (www.parvati.org).

The Loyola Alumni Association, Patna, organised an ex-students' meet here, which was attended by students from 1980 batch to 2010. The gala event was planned to make the alumni association of the prestigious school stronger.

The ex-Loyolites were found sharing their experiences with their spouses and children.

Avinash Sinha, branch manager, ITC, who is also an alumni of Loyola said: "It is difficult to explain in words my memories of the school. My life changed completely after finishing Loyola. It became busier and a lot more difficult."

Former student Dipak Agarwal, who runs a steel industry in Patna said: "If you go anywhere in Bihar and ask about the former students of the school, almost everyone would know, who exactly you are referring to."

Loyola School, Karji, has carved a niche in the education sector in Bihar. The school apart from providing good education is also known for extra-curricular activities.

student and also the project director of Alumni Association said: "The school is known for providing quality education to many ex-students of the school are posted as head of various government and private sector companies."

Sanjeev Kumar, a former Loyolite, is currently the district magistrate of Gandhinagar, Gujarat.

Similarly among the many who have reached the zenith of their careers, Sanjay Kumar is DM in Gaya, Niraj Singh is deputy commissioner (income tax) in Chennai, Amitabh Thakur is an IPS officer.

Satyendra Singh also said that the alumni body is planning to make the association stronger and also to generate funds for philanthropic works.

The association is planning to construct a swimming pool for students and even the school management has agreed to the proposal.

The alumni association is also contemplating restoration of St Gabriel School for underprivileged students, which runs at the Loyola school campus.

The day remained packed with cultural events and plays. A satire, 'Andhon Ka Haathi', written by eminent Hindi author Sarad Joshi tried to reflect the condition of people today. A football match was also organised later in the day between Loyola alumni and Reliance Communications.

PATNA: It is the same naughty youngster, scowled Pawan Khemka, a 1978 batcher of the Loyola High School, as his bespectacled eyes took in the sunlit courtyard, the imposing wall, the iron grill that seemed to sit as lightly on 1979 hatch. Sayendra Kumar Singh's two eyes rapped shoulders. A minute later, the two friends were gleefully recalling time spent in the school years ago, merry now and then chuckling at the memory of pranks they had played upon fellow classmates.

on the campus of the Notre Dame academy next door separated by a low wall, not the iron grill that has come up since, which we used to clamber over to steal the fruit," Sayendra recalled his eyes taking on a faraway look as the two friends recounted pranks played by them that invariably earned them a scorching reprimand from Brother Peter.

Sunday at the Loyola High School was alumni day and the school's empty classrooms resounded with the laughter of its former students as they went around the school remembering those golden years.

THE DAY WOULD ALSO BE REMEMBERED FOR THE OFFICIAL LAUNCH OF THE LOYOLA ALUMNI WEBSITE THAT DEEPAK KUMAR, A FORMER LOYOLITE, NOW WITH THE RELIANCE COMMUNICATIONS, HAD HELPED SET UP

since it was first started way back in the 1980s. The sense of right and wrong, of fair play that were ingrained into me is what has kept me going all these years. The discipline then was the school's USP. That is why starting out with just a handful of students in the late 1970s, the school now has over 8000 students on its rolls today. Now that the Alumni Association has a web-much easier. The Alumni magazine, he pointed out is a yearly one that is shipped to all former students who have agreed to leave their addresses with the school authorities. "It essentially informs the former students of the school's progress. From time to time, we also include news of how the school's former students are faring," he said.

Elsewhere, there was a cricket match being played with the more physically fit of the school's former students split into two competing teams. "It's a great way to unwind," said Charan Kumar of the 2004 batch as he struggled with the ball that had come his way on the outfield.

Khemka, possibly the oldest of the alumni present, recalled Brothers Montfort, Peter and Michael and how these venerable teachers had shaped his approach to life. "Masters of their respective subjects they were, nevertheless Brother Peter, in particular, was extremely easy going, for ever cracking jokes and telling us stories. That does not mean that we could take liberties with him. If he guessed as much, he was a very hard man, sparing none," Khemka, now an entrepreneur recalled.

Sayendra Singh's eyes grew misty when, while going around the school, he espied the guava trees planted on the fields of the Notre Dame Academy's next door. "There was none of that iron grill separating Loyola's boundary with that of the Notre Dame then. We often clambered across the low wall for the guavas there," he said.

Wives and children of the school's alumni were not overlooked. Even as their husbands shared memories and played a game of cricket, they hopped around in a game of musical chairs while for the children the school authorities had organised a whole lot of games with snacks and a grand lunch.

A day of fun, frolic & mirth

WINTER CARNIVAL IN SCHOOL

Children in the Loyola High School, Patna, were enjoying the winter carnival on Sunday. The carnival was organised by the school authorities and was a great success. The children were very happy and enjoyed the games and activities.

For children, there were games like football, basketball, badminton, table tennis, etc. There were also some cultural programmes and a quiz competition. The carnival was a great success and the children were very happy.

A day of old friends at Loyola

HT Correspondent

PATNA: The Friendship Day this year was special for the former students of Loyola High School. A large number of them assembled along with their families at the school for the alumni day. They mingled with old friends and remembered the pranks they played at the school, along with the pranks.

It was just the second meeting of the Loyola Alumni Association. Khemka, a stockbroker by profession, said, "The idea was since a long time, we got permission from school authorities, we quickly set up the association in 2009. As we have less members present, the number is rising." Spak Agrawal, an industrialist and the secretary of the association, said, "We teach other with the help of the school, and now the people are finding each other by word of mouth publicity." The members, from different walks of life, trooped in with their families, showing their wives and children the landmarks of their alma mater. Ajay Kumar, a member of the association, said, "This is one place where people meet their friends, seniors and juniors without any selfish interest. There is some instant emotional connect when we invoke the name of the school." Vishal Kapoor, an entrepreneur and an alumnus was surprised to see the changes the school has undergone over the last two decades. "The Montessori section has become vast, classes XI and XII also have been started, education in Hindi medium has been stopped, sports facilities including the basketball court have grown and the canteen has become big. A new auditorium has also been added," he said.

The occasion was marked by several cultural programmes. A modern version of the one-act play 'The blind men and the elephant' was staged. Many members and their spouses presented impromptu songs and skits. The programme ended with a football match.

President of the association, Amar Jaswal, along with several alumni including Alok Prasoon, Satyendra Singh and Prabhat Kumar Singh also attended the function. Among those who could not make it to the event were the district magistrate of Gaya, Sanjay Kumar, and Colonel B K Singh of Danapur Cantonment.

1989-90 were the golden years for Loyola Cricket Team. Frankly speaking, getting into the Patna District team was little easier than getting into the playing XI of Loyola senior cricket team. We had two formidable teams- Loyal seniors and Loyal juniors- competing in all tournaments and I can tell you some of the players who could not find a place in senior team at that time went on to play for Bihar State Ranji Trophy later. If I remember correctly, almost 4 to 5 players were representing state and almost same number of players were part of district team including yours truly :) We won almost all tournaments that we played and players used to make a gradual transition from junior team to senior team- a unique way of nurturing talent and giving opportunities.
